

HANNAH ADDARIO-BERRY, cellist

QUOTES

"What a marvelous, exciting performance of the Kodály Sonata. I was kept on the edge of my chair. Thank you so much for the marvelous evening." (Audience member)

"Thank you for your exquisite recital on Friday night. I appreciated the way you introduced each piece and tied them all together, as well as hearing the Britten for the first time, and the Kodaly again, which I am getting to love" (Concert host)

"Monday evening was wonderful! You made it joyous for all of us. Many times since then I have replayed the evening in my mind. In the multiple comments I have received from people, they are all awed by you and your playing. Thank you, thank you, thank you." (House concert host)

"Many, many thanks for giving such a terrific performance. I hope you got pleasure from doing it, as the audience was in raptures." (Concert host)

"I attended your Scordatura performance at the Freight and Salvage. Amazing. It was jaw-dropping in the skill and complexity. You continue to inspire." (Audience member)

"It was exquisite, Hannah. I was spellbound. We were all amazed! Congratulations on everything, not the least of which was the idea to do [Scordatura] in the first place. No guts, no glory." (Audience member)

"We made it to the San Francisco premiere concert last night and were BLOWN AWAY! Such beautiful music and your performance was stunning. All in all, one of the most incredible music performances I've ever experienced." (Audience member)
